

DDoS attack figures from the first quarter of 2021

The Dutch National Scrubbing Center against DDoS attacks (NaWas) protects participants against DDoS. Beyond protection, the NaWas also offers valuable insights into the changing landscape of DDoS. To better combat these malicious attacks, we share our up-to-date knowledge with interested parties. Together we stand strong against DDoS. Below you'll find some of the most important figures from the first quarter of 2021.

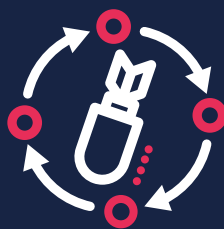

Number of attacks:

871

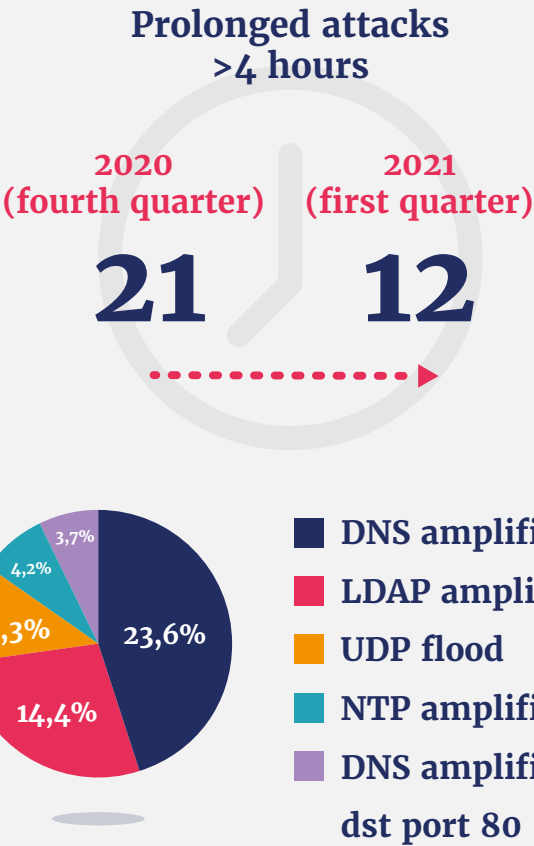

Average number of attacks per day:

9,7

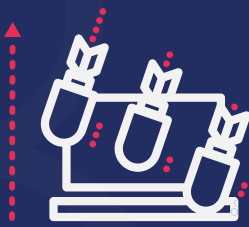

Largest recorded attack:

300Gbps

Trends

Strong increase in the number of attacks

Average number of attacks per day increases

DDoS attacks increasingly powerful

Most common type of attacks: DNS Amplification & LDAP amplification
DDoS-attacks increased in duration, strength, and frequency

Want to learn more about NaWas DDoS protection?
Visit our website at nbip.nl/en/nawas